

1. What disturbed the priests and the captain of the temple and what did they do?
2. About how many of the people believed (compare 2:41)?
3. Who gathered in Jerusalem, and where have we heard about Annas and Caiaphas before (Jn 18:13, 24)?
4. What did they ask Peter and John?
5. How did Peter point out how ridiculous it was that they were on trial?
6. Of what did he accuse them, and what did he say God had done to Jesus?
7. What astonished the council, and what did they realize?
8. Why was it difficult for the council to do much, and what did they decide to do?
9. What did Peter and John say in response to that?
10. When they were released and prayed with their friends, what did they ask for?
11. How did God answer their prayer?
12. What was the attitude of the believers toward each other?
13. Why was no one among them in need?